Lágafellslaug – Swimming pool

Thermal pool with a nice play area for children with slides of various sizes and shapes. Outdoor as well as indoor pools and steam room.

Háholt – Mosfells bakery and Restaurant Cafe Kidda Rót

At the Mosfellsbakarí bakery/coffee house you can find the finest bread, cakes, desserts, renowned, handmade Icelandic chocolates and fresh coffee.

Cafe Kidda Rót is renowned throughout Iceland for its romantic burgers, crazy pizza's and it's relaxed atmosphere.

Hraunhús – Magmatika Design Store

Magmatika design store and cafe offers the best of Iceland's design. Magmatika's goal is to always be at the forefront of Icelandic design as well as being a great place to visit.

Hlín Blómahús – Flower Workshop

A unique florist's workshop where only Icelandic raw material is used. The outcome is exceptional and worth a visit.

Álafossbúðin – Wool Store

The Álafoss Factory Sale is a good place to pick up woollen goods and also houses a small exhibition about Iceland's woollens industry which flourished there. Álafoskvos, the old factory of the Álafoss woollens company, was converted some years ago into a colony of artists' studios.

Mt. Helgafell – Hiking Route

Mt. Helgafell (217 m) is a manageable hike with beautiful views at the top. In good weather it's possible to view the capital, Mt. Esja, Snæfellsjökul glacier and beyond. Mt. Helgafell can be the start of a longer, more challenging route throughout the vast nature of Mosfellsbær area.

Mosskógar – Campsite and farmers' market

The farmers' market at Mosskogar is a renowned event taking place every Saturday in July and August. Mosskogar, in beautiful Mosfellsdalur, is also an attractive campsite and provides basic facilities.

Gljúfrasteinn – Laxness Museum

Gljúfrasteinn was the home and workplace of Halldór Laxness (winner of the Nobel Prize for Literature in 1955) and his family for more than half a century.

Esjustofa – Mt. Esja visitor center

Esjustofa (House of Esja) is a cosy, family-friendly restaurant and cafe located right beneath the slopes of Mt. Esja, the most prominent mountain within the capital area of Reykjavík.

Háholt – Hotel Laxnes and Tourist Information office

Hotel Laxnes offers a land-house like atmosphere with the beauty of the mountains ahead as surplus. The hotel runs a tourist information office.

Varmárlaug – Swimming pool

Outdoor thermal pool with a childrens' pool and play area. Nice sauna.
